765 Club fact sheet

Ratings tell part of the story; the 765 Club card fills in the rest. The entry carries a 4.5-star score, an install tally of 420K+, and a 48 MB download, with the active build at v2.8.0 and the refresh stamp reading Jun 2026. Two figures share the spotlight here, and they happen to be identical: the join offer is ₹100 and the withdrawal floor is also ₹100. Both are reproduced in the source spelling, which uses the rupee symbol rather than the Rs. prefix for this app.

Because the two numbers coincide, the practical picture writes itself. You can enter with the ₹100 welcome credit, and that same ₹100 is the lowest cash-out amount the listing shows. The symmetry keeps the arithmetic simple for anyone who plans a first session before installing. The payment methods named on the card are UPI, Paytm, and Bank—three channels, written in the source with slashes between them—and no cards or wallets appear beyond that set. The age requirement is 18+, applying to registration and play alike.

At 48 MB the client is middleweight, and v2.8.0 with a June 2026 refresh stamp points to a build that has not gone stale. For anyone weighing the install, the useful takeaways are the rating, the three payment rails, and the fact that the bonus and the payout floor both land at ₹100. None of this forecasts results; it is simply what the listing records, with currency symbols kept exactly as published. Anyone who installs should still read the app's own rules on how the credit is released, since the card does not spell that out.

On the 765 Club listing, ₹100 shows up in two roles: as the join offer given at registration, and as the withdrawal floor—the smallest cash-out the entry presents. The numbers happen to match, but they apply at different moments: money in when you join, money out when you cash out. Both are recorded exactly as listed, and the operator's live terms may differ.

The 765 Club entry names UPI / Paytm / Bank as its payment methods, in that exact grouping. No other services appear on the page. If you normally pay another way, check the operator's destination—the directory only mirrors the listing and neither runs the app nor handles its deposits and withdrawals.

The 765 Club entry records version v2.8.0 at 48 MB, refreshed in Jun 2026. The listing links a direct Android APK, so the build you download may be newer than the page version—compare after sideloading. The entry also shows 420K+ installs, a 4.5 rating, and an 18+ age limit.

765 Club logs 420K+ installs on its listing beside a 4.5-star rating. The figure is what the page displayed at capture time and keeps rising as more users install the APK. The entry also files the app under Popular Rummy Apps and records a 48 MB build at version v2.8.0.
