Rummy has been classified as a game of skill by the Supreme Court of India, which traditionally exempts it from gambling prohibitions. However, the 2025 PROGA legislation introduced new restrictions on real-money gaming across all categories. A23 Rummy is actively challenging this legislation in the Supreme Court, with hearings scheduled for January 2026. Players should verify their state’s current regulations before participating

A23 (formerly Ace2Three) is India's oldest operating online rummy platform, launched in 2005—over 19 years of continuous service. It is TORF-certified (The Online Rummy Federation), audited for ethical operations and transparency. Unique features include Private Tables for playing with family and the annual Maha Mela festival with ₹100 crore in prizes

Three formats: Points Rummy (single-deal, fastest format), Pool Rummy (101 and 201 points—players stay until a player reaches the point limit), and Deals Rummy (best-of-2 or best-of-3 deals, cumulative scoring)

Success requires a pure sequence (consecutive cards of the same suit without a joker) as the foundation—without it, your hand is invalid. Other tactics: discard high-value cards early (Kings, Queens, Aces) unless they're forming sequences, use jokers strategically to complete difficult sets, and observe opponents' discards to avoid helping them

Daily free-entry tournaments starting at 3:00 PM IST with a ₹1 Lakh total prize pool . First-place winners receive ₹1,500. These tournaments are designed specifically for new players to experience cash games without financial risk

Yes. A23 is the only rummy platform offering Private Tables . You can invite specific players, set your own stakes (including free practice), and play privately—no random opponents

The platform uses iTech Labs-certified Random Number Generators (RNG) for card shuffling. It holds TORF certification requiring regular audits. A23 also publicly maintains a bot-free guarantee , with algorithms designed to detect and block automated players

Players must be 18 years or older . Mandatory KYC verification requires Aadhaar and PAN card submission before any deposits or withdrawals—a measure that also prevents underage access
