Rummy rooms are often judged by their join offer, and the Dash Rummy card is no exception. It leads with a Rs.75 credit for new players, paired with a ₹100 payout floor. The listing also records 420K+ installs against a 4.4 rating, a 51 MB install file, a v4.0.8 build, and a Feb 2026 refresh stamp. Read the numbers in full below, then note the two that carry the most weight.

The Rs.75 join credit and the ₹100 floor

The two headline numbers on the Dash Rummy card belong to different moments. The Rs.75 figure sits in the sign-up context: the credit a new player receives on joining. The ₹100 figure sits in the withdrawal context: the smallest amount a player can cash out. Keeping them apart matters, because the credit alone stops short of the floor, and players who miss the distinction tend to misjudge how close they are to a payout.

Dash Rummy payment rails

On the payments side, the card names PhonePe and UPI and nothing else. Both are widely used domestic options, and the absence of other rails is simply what the listing records—not a judgement on any method. The age limit is 18+, and the v4.0.8 build with the Feb 2026 stamp completes the technical side of the card. That is the full record, figures and all.

For players deciding where the next install lands, the practical facts are the Rs.75 credit, the ₹100 floor, and the PhonePe and UPI rails; everything else on the card is technical detail. None of it is embellished here, and the listing carries no further figures beyond what appears above. Blog , Privacy , Terms

The Dash Rummy page names PhonePe and UPI as its two payment methods. No other instruments appear on the listing, so players who prefer another method should confirm what the app accepts after installing. The entry also records the build as 51 MB at v4.0.8, refreshed Feb 2026, with a Rs.75 join offer and a ₹100 withdrawal floor.

The Dash Rummy listing shows Rs.75 as its join offer, the welcome promotion presented to new players. It is separate from the ₹100 withdrawal floor, the smallest payout request the page records. Treat the bonus as an opening offer and read the operator's terms for the conditions attached to it.

The Dash Rummy entry lists version v4.0.8 with a Feb 2026 refresh date, and the APK size is 51 MB. The listing links a direct Android APK, so installation happens by sideloading. The page also carries an 18+ age limit and records 420K+ installs with a 4.4 rating.

The Dash Rummy listing records 420K+ installs alongside a 4.4 rating. That is the figure printed on the page, along with the 51 MB v4.0.8 build, the Rs.75 join offer, and the ₹100 withdrawal floor. These are the numbers as listed; the app's live store page is where current figures would appear.
