Why it is featured here

Eipl is the clearest cricket specialist in this import batch. The navy icon with a batsman is not a generic 777 skin. The home feed is fixtures, toss markets, and in-play ladders. game is a buried tab with a handful of fillers.

Match offer

₹500 is a first-deposit match with sport weighting. Cricket in-play counted fully in the table we saved; game fillers counted at a reduced rate. That weighting matters if you wander into the game tab to “clear” the bonus — it can stall the meter.

In-play behaviour

Markets suspend on wickets and reviews, then reopen. The delay felt in line with a live feed, not a slideshow. Cash-out (partial) exists on pre-match multiples but not on every in-play selection. Read the cash-out pill before you assume an exit is available mid-over.

Payout door

₹1,000 is a high minimum. It pushes this product toward people who already bankroll a season, not ₹100 testers. UPI, cards, and bank transfer are listed. Card deposits carried a notice about issuer blocks on betting MCCs — have UPI ready.

Same-game traps

Same-game multiples are promoted on IPL nights. Correlation is not explained in plain language. If you do not already understand related legs, skip the builder and use singles.

Support during live play

Chat is staffed later into the night on IPL windows than on midweek bilateral series. Void disputes need a bet ID and a timestamp. Keep screenshots; live markets disappear from history filters after a few days in this UI.

Close

Eipl belongs on a cricket shortlist, not a slots shortlist. Respect the ₹1,000 cashout door and the sport-weighted ₹500 match. 18+ only, and never chase a collapsed middle-over market.

Common questions

Only a buried filler tab in the build we opened. The product is a cricket book first.

That floor is printed on the cashier. It is high versus colour apps. Plan a test bankroll that can actually reach the door after KYC.

Sport weighting favoured cricket. game fillers counted at a reduced rate in the table we saved, which can stall the meter.
