Love Rummy is an unusual name for a card app, but the listing is all business: 4.5 stars, 460K+ installs, a Rs.51 join offer, and a ₹100 minimum withdrawal. The welcome figure and the payout floor are both quoted plainly, so there are no hidden tiers to unpack before the first deal.

The Rs.51 join credit on Love Rummy

The Rs.51 bonus is credited at sign-up, a fixed welcome amount that lands with no deposit-matching conditions on the listing. New players can spend it on a few low-stake tables right away, which keeps the first session low-pressure. The entry quotes v5.1.3 as the build, with a Dec 2025 refresh stamp alongside it, and the 18+ age gate applies to every registration.

The ₹100 cash-out on Love Rummy

The cash-out side starts at ₹100, and the app moves money through UPI and Cards. Card payments are a listed option here, which broadens the exit paths beyond the usual single channel; UPI users still get the familiar lane. The 4.5-star score and 460K+ installs give the entry a well-travelled feel, and the 41 MB install sits comfortably on most handsets.

Payment channels in brief

- Download size: 41 MB
- Release version: v5.1.3
- Refresh date: Dec 2025

- Ways to pay: UPI, Cards
- Age gate: 18+

The 41 MB install stays in the typical range, and the v5.1.3 stamp rounds out a profile that is easy to summarise: Rs.51 in, ₹100 out, and two payment channels to choose between. The 18+ gate is the only requirement to check off, and a fresh account opens with the Rs.51 credit ready to use. Treat the bonus as a starting point, not a promise of returns.

Love Rummy lists Rs.51 as its join offer. It appears in the welcome or promo section of the card, and no conditions are published alongside it. Anyone registering should verify how the Rs.51 is applied at the operator's destination, since the listing only states the amount.

The Love Rummy card records ₹100 as its minimum withdrawal. That is the floor for cash-outs—the balance must reach ₹100 before a payout request makes sense. The card does not publish payout times or fees, which remain operator-side details.

Love Rummy names UPI and Cards. The listing uses Cards as the method label, so the exact card types are not broken out here. Since only these two methods appear, anything else needs confirming directly with the operator.

The Love Rummy entry shows 41 MB at version v5.1.3, with Dec 2025 as the refresh month. The link on the listing is a direct Android APK, so the phone's unknown-source permission needs to be enabled before installation can begin.
