Want to know what the MQM BET card actually records? It carries a 4.5-star rating, 255K+ installs, and a small but real Rs.20 welcome credit for players who register for the first time. The category is Slots & BET Games, which signals an app built around betting-style games as much as card tables.

How does MQM BET greet new players?

MQM BET opens its offer book with a Rs.20 join credit. It is a modest sum, but claiming it costs nothing and it gives new players a few rounds to test the tables before deciding to top up. The credit is tied to the 18+ age gate, and the bonus rules sit on the site's terms page rather than buried inside the installer.

MQM BET cash-out terms

The withdrawal side reads easily: the minimum payout is ₹50, a low bar that suits small-stakes players who prefer to cash out often. Payments run through UPI and Cards—the only two methods named on the profile—and nothing else is listed. The v3.11.0 build and the Dec 2025 refresh stamp point to a title still being maintained, while the 36 MB installer stays light enough for older handsets. The official APK downloads directly from the developer's link, so installation is a one-step affair.

The MQM BET card shows Rs.20 as its join offer. It appears in the bonus row of the listing, which makes it a welcome figure for new accounts at registration. The same card also prints a ₹50 minimum withdrawal, so the two amounts belong to different rows and different roles.

The MQM BET listing records ₹50 as its minimum withdrawal, the lowest cash-out figure on the card. It means a balance would need to reach ₹50 before a payout, as far as the listing states. No further payout conditions appear on the page.

The MQM BET entry lists version v3.11.0 at 36 MB, with the card stamped Dec 2025 as the refresh date. The download is a direct Android APK, so the install route is sideloading rather than an app store download, and the page marks the app as 18+.

Yes, as far as the listing shows. The MQM BET card names UPI and Cards in its payment row and prints no other method. The directory adds no methods of its own, so anything beyond UPI and Cards would need checking at the operator's destination.

Because they play different roles on the card. The Rs.20 amount is the join offer, an inbound deal shown in the promo row. The ₹50 amount is the minimum withdrawal, an outbound threshold in the payout row. Mixing the two would misread the listing, which keeps the bonus and cash-out figures apart.
