Offer Details

The Rummy Club bonus comes in two parts: a ₹30 free signup credit with no deposit, and a 100% welcome match up to ₹600 on your first add-cash. Neither is large by Indian rummy standards, and that’s the point — Rummy Club is a stripped-down points-rummy app, not a bonus machine.

Here’s what the package actually consists of:

The ₹30 is the better-known offer because it costs you nothing. The ₹600 match is only worth chasing if you were going to deposit anyway — claim the free credit first, play it, then deposit to stack both.

Eligibility

The conditions are simple but enforced at KYC time:

- One bonus per person, device and PAN. Duplicate accounts are caught at verification and forfeit everything.
- 18+ only , with PAN-based age verification before any withdrawal.
- Restricted states excluded — players in Telangana, Andhra Pradesh, Assam and other restricted states are geo-blocked.
- New accounts only. Reinstalling on the same number does not re-trigger the credit.

Terms Decoded

Two terms decide whether this bonus is worth your time:

The 1× wagering requirement means you must put the bonus cash into play at cash tables once. Points rummy at ₹0.05–₹0.10/point clears it in a handful of games, since Rummy Club has nothing but points rummy to play.

The ₹150 minimum withdrawal is the real catch, and the single biggest knock against Rummy Club. It's the highest floor of any app we cover — most sit at ₹100, some as low as ₹25. A ₹30 free credit on a ₹150-floor app means you can't cash out until you've roughly quintupled it through play. Factor that in before you treat the ₹30 as "free money": it's a trial bankroll, not a payout.

How It Compares

₹30 free plus a ₹600 match is on the small side. Here's where it sits:

Our take: choose Rummy Club for the app , not the bonus. If you specifically want a tiny, fast, distraction-free points-rummy client — read why in our Rummy Club review — the modest bonus is a fair trade. But if the bonus is what you're shopping for, every alternative above pays more and cashes out from a lower floor.

How to Claim the Bonus

Get the latest APK from our Rummy Club APK guide — v3.6.1, a tiny 32 MB, Android 5.0+. It installs fast even on a 2–3 GB RAM phone.

Enter your number, verify the OTP and set a password. Use your real name — it must match your PAN when you withdraw.

The ₹30 free signup credit lands in your bonus balance within seconds. No code, no deposit, no card details needed.

Deposit via UPI on the Add Cash screen to trigger the 100% welcome match, up to ₹600 in bonus cash.

Wager the bonus at cash tables, complete KYC, and withdraw via UPI once your balance clears the ₹150 minimum.

The ₹30 signup credit is genuinely free — credited on registration with no deposit. The ₹600 welcome bonus is a deposit match, so it only arrives after you add cash. Both are bonus cash, meaning you must wager them at cash tables before winnings become withdrawable.

No. The ₹30 credits automatically on every new account and the ₹600 match applies on the Add Cash screen. You can enter our Rummy Club promo code CLUB600 to make sure the full match is applied, but the offer credits without it too.

No. You must play it through points rummy at least once, then complete KYC. Rummy Club's minimum withdrawal is ₹150 — the highest on our list — so the ₹30 only becomes cashable after you turn it into a ₹150+ balance through play.

Rummy Club is a deliberately minimal 32 MB app built only for 13-card points rummy — no tournaments, no pool, no promo carousel. The trade-off for that simplicity is a modest ₹600 bonus ceiling. If you want a bigger bankroll, the apps in our best rummy bonuses table pay far more.

Yes, both offers are active as of June 2026. Signup-credit and match figures change occasionally — we verify this page monthly and update the numbers if the app changes its offer.
