Featured for completeness

Rummy Joy (slug rummy-joy) is the fullest card client in this folder. Points, 101/201 pool, and deals are all present with practice chips. The gold JOY on green reels is branding; the useful part is the drop button that actually works on time, and toss/deal animations that do not hide the discard pile.

₹180 welcome

₹180 splits: a small instant chip and a larger unlock after five settled cash points games. Pool and deals did not count toward that five in the footnote. If you only play pool, the second slice never arrives.

Table quality

Auto-sort is sane. Invalid declare is blocked with a highlight, which saves accidental shows. Turn clocks are 15/20/25 seconds by room. Disconnect protection holds your hand for one turn, then auto-plays a safe discard — still painful, but better than instant fold.

Cashier

UPI, PhonePe, net banking. ₹300 floor. A weekly cashout count of ten appeared for unverified-plus accounts; after full KYC the count lifted. Do KYC if you play daily.

Language tables

You can filter Hindi-chat or English-chat rooms. That is social comfort, not a rules change. Printed rules stay English with a Hindi overlay toggle.

Tournaments

Sit-and-go deals sit in a separate tab with buy-ins from low to sharp. Late registration exists for some flights. Read the prize overlay; a "8.4M users" home badge is not a prize pool.

Close

Rummy Joy is the rummy pick in this import if you want real formats and a working drop. Take ₹180 only if you will play points. Keep pool as cash if that is your game.

Practice first

The practice lobby mirrors cash clocks. Spend one session there to learn this client's declare highlight before you pay a mid-stake points table.
