What you are opening

Super Rummy is built around rummy in its familiar Indian form: thirteen cards, one drawable from either the closed stack or the discard pile, and a hand that must close with valid sequences and sets before a rival declares.

Taken as a whole, it is a casual-pace product: sessions can be short, the exit is always obvious, and nothing assumes hours of continuous play.

On the table

Each table lists its stake and format before entry. Points formats settle at the end of a deal on the deadwood left in each losing hand; pool formats knock players out as their totals climb. Confirm which one you have joined, because the right moment to declare differs between them.

Time-outs and turn clocks are shown where a format uses them, so the pace of a session is visible before entry.

The short version of the above:

- Auto-grouping that can be corrected manually
- Pure-sequence reminders before declaration
- Hand sorting by suit and rank at the deal

Session habits that help

Two habits keep a session comfortable: a fixed spend limit decided in advance, and a pause between rounds to read the result rather than react to it. Neither costs anything; both change how the session feels.

Moving around the app

The lobby opens directly onto the catalogue. Sections are labelled by what they contain, sorting is available, and the back gesture always lands you where you started rather than at a home screen.

At a glance:

- Session history under the account menu
- Balance shown beside the catalogue
- Account menu in one place

Withdrawal basics

The minimum eligible withdrawal is ₹100, and the listed payment routes are UPI and Net Banking. Before requesting a payout, confirm the account details on file and review any charges shown with the request. Processing follows the selected method together with the app’s account review, so arrival times are estimates rather than promises.

Bonus credit, explained

A welcome bonus of ₹120 is available under the promotion’s eligibility rules for new accounts. Those rules, plus activation steps and expiry, are displayed before the offer can be accepted. The credited amount sits in a separate bonus balance until its conditions are met.

Common questions

The app is intended for users aged 18 and over. The age limit is applied at registration and checked during verification, and adults should keep both the app and its payment methods away from minors.

The honest answer is no: results vary, bonuses have conditions, and continued play is a cost decision rather than a recovery strategy.

A ₹120 welcome bonus is available under the promotion's eligibility rules. The conditions are displayed with the offer; the credited amount sits in a bonus balance, distinct from your cash balance.

Payouts are processed through UPI and Net Banking once a request of at least ₹100 is confirmed. Each request undergoes standard account checks; timing varies by method.

To sum it up: rummy tables where the aim is arranging the dealt hand into valid sequences and sets, presented with the costs, rules and results in writing. The rest of the app stays out of the way until needed.
