Family mark, reel product

Yono 777 is the slot-shaped sibling of Yono Games. Home is a reel wall with 777 classics and a few video slots. A banner can deep-link to other yono-branded titles; that banner is a store, not a shared balance. Wallets do not merge unless a cashier screen explicitly says so — ours did not. Install both only if you want two products, not because the banner implies one account.

₹77 and ₹177

₹77 bonus, ₹177 floor, 9x on slots. The numbers rhyme on purpose. Rhyme is not a payout schedule. Crash is absent here, which makes the wagering line simpler than HA 777: you are not tempted to clear a bonus on a weighted-down plane game. Eligible titles show a small 777 chip; unmarked video slots did not move the meter in our pass.

Slot tools

Turbo, autoplay, and a history of the last 50 spins inside each title. No global RTP sheet. Favourite hearts sync on the device, not always across reinstall — screenshot your list if you care. Autoplay stops on feature rounds, but it does not stop on a shrinking bankroll. Set a spin count before you start, not after.

Cashier

UPI and Paytm. First KYC is lighter than Golds Bet (PAN + selfie, no video). ₹177 is a quirky floor; leftover ₹150 after a win sits until you add ₹27 more or win again. Do not deposit ₹27 on tilt just to meet the door. Wait for the next session or accept that the floor is part of the brand joke.

Cross-sell pressure

After a loss streak the app suggested opening Yono Games. That is marketing. Closing the sheet does not affect this wallet. If you already hold a Yono Games KYC, still confirm the PAN match before you assume withdrawals will be faster here.

Audio

Reel stop sounds are sharp. A per-game mute exists. System mute is still easier during office hours. The green quilted background is easier on the eyes than Diwa Win's gold particle storm, which is a small mercy on long autoplay.

Close

Yono 777 is a clean-enough reel client in a yono wrapper. Keep the wallet separate from Yono Games, finish 9x only on chipped slots, and do not chase ₹27 just to meet ₹177.

Not in the cashier we opened. Treat them as separate wallets unless a screen explicitly merges them.

It is a branded floor. Winnings between ₹100 and ₹176 wait until you cross it.

Not in this lobby. It is a reel-first 777. Crash-style play lives on other listings in this batch.
