The Teen Patti Joy listing reports 400K+ installs against a 4.5-star rating, with the card placed in the Teen Patti & Table Games group. The figures are given as-is, and the join credit leads the record.

How much is Teen Patti Joy's join offer?

The join offer on Teen Patti Joy is Rs.75, credited in the welcome context when a new player registers through the card's link. No other promotional amount is listed for Teen Patti Joy, and the Rs.75 figure appears only in sign-up terms. Withdrawals, by contrast, run from a ₹100 minimum payout, so the cash-out floor sits clearly above the welcome credit and the two amounts never share a role. The app packages at 38 MB with build v2.14.6, and the refresh stamp reads Nov 2025, which keeps the record a few months behind the newest entries without changing the facts. Payments run through UPI and Paytm, named exactly as listed, and the 18+ gate applies to every account. Reading the card top to bottom, the fields stay within their labels: the sign-up figure stays with the welcome, the payout figure stays with cash-outs, and the install count of 400K+ is shown as recorded. For a player deciding whether to install, the short version is Rs.75 to start, ₹100 to withdraw, and a 38 MB package, all confirmed by the table above. That is the complete record, kept short and exact. This note is editorial and not part of the app's official materials; the privacy page and terms carry the governing conditions.

The Teen Patti Joy page records a Rs.75 join offer, presented in a sign-up or promo context, meaning it attaches to joining the app rather than regular play. The same entry shows ₹100 as the minimum withdrawal, so the two figures bracket the page: what is offered at sign-up versus the smallest cash-out indicated.

The Teen Patti Joy entry names UPI and Paytm and nothing else. Since no other methods appear in the listing, those two are the only channels the page records for moving money. As always with directory data, confirm current availability at the operator's destination—the listing reflects only what it prints.

The Teen Patti Joy listing shows 38 MB at v2.14.6, with Nov 2025 as the refresh month and an 18+ age limit. The entry also records 400K+ installs and a 4.5 rating. The page links a direct Android APK, so installation is a sideload rather than a store install.

Teen Patti Joy shows 400K+ installs on the directory page. That is the count as printed by the listing, not an independently verified figure. Alongside it, the page carries a 4.5 rating, a Rs.75 join offer, and a ₹100 minimum withdrawal, all reproduced from the same entry.
