This low threshold is designed to accommodate casual players who may want to cash out smaller winnings without waiting to accumulate larger sums. Only winnings generated from actual gameplay—not bonus credits—are eligible for withdrawal. Bonus funds can be used to play games but must be converted through gameplay before becoming eligible for withdrawal.

Withdrawal requests are typically processed within 1 to 3 hours, though occasional payment system delays may extend this to up to 24 hours. If a withdrawal fails, funds are automatically returned to your wallet within 24 hours. Check your transaction history in the app settings if you experience delays.
