Introducing the app

Rummy Battle is built around rummy in its familiar Indian form: thirteen cards, one drawable from either the closed stack or the discard pile, and a hand that must close with valid sequences and sets before a rival declares.

Whoever you are in this for, the app treats the entry decision as the important one: everything on the main screen exists to make that comparison easier.

Formats and stakes

Formats differ in how a round ends: a deal ends at the first valid declaration, while a pool keeps a running score until a limit is crossed. Check the lobby entry before sitting, then let the discard pile guide what you keep.

Formats that settle instantly are labelled as such, and formats with longer arcs are easy to tell apart in the lobby.

At a glance:

- Pure-sequence reminders before declaration
- Discard-pile tracking with every throw visible
- Points, pool and deals formats listed with their stakes
- Hand sorting by suit and rank at the deal

- Auto-grouping that can be corrected manually

The layout, briefly

Recent and favourite entries are collected near the top, which turns a repeat session into a two-tap exercise.

Sign-in and verification

Account information lives in one profile section: details, payment routes and verification status. Reviewing it occasionally takes a minute and prevents the slower kind of support ticket.

Sensible session practice

If play stops being a pastime and starts being a plan for money, that is the signal to stop and reconsider. These games are entertainment, not income, and they are priced like entertainment.

The ₹25 welcome bonus

There is a ₹25 welcome bonus available to new accounts that meet the stated conditions. Those conditions — activation, eligible games, expiry — appear with the offer itself. As a rule of thumb: bonus credit is for play, and turning it into withdrawable balance depends on meeting the promotion’s own requirements.

Requesting a withdrawal

Cash-out starts at ₹100. Choose between UPI and IMPS on the withdrawal screen, where the amount and destination are confirmed together. Bonus-related conditions may hold part of the balance, and the chosen route sets the expected processing pattern.

Common questions

Yes — the rules are in-app, per format, with entry costs and settlement terms on the same screen. Nothing depends on outside knowledge.

No assured payout exists. Results can vary, bonuses come with conditions, and playing longer changes total exposure, not the likelihood of recovery.

Qualifying newcomers may claim ₹25 in welcome credit. Check the published terms for activation and game eligibility, and note that bonus and cash balances are accounted for separately.

In short: rummy sessions that begin with a sorted hand and end with a declaration or a missed combination, plus the surrounding tools for stakes, balances and payouts. The Rummy label describes the collection it belongs to.

You can cash out once your withdrawable balance reaches ₹100. The payout screens show the amount, destination and any fees for confirmation before the request is filed.
