The app in brief

Rummy King treats rummy as a game of hand management. Sorting the thirteen cards early, tracking discards and counting deadwood matter more than speed.

That is the whole pitch — a clear entry point, readable rules and a session length you choose yourself.

Inside a session

Formats differ in how a round ends: a deal ends at the first valid declaration, while a pool keeps a running score until a limit is crossed. Check the lobby entry before sitting, then let the discard pile guide what you keep.

Stakes and entry costs appear on the same card as the join button, which removes most of the guesswork from choosing.

The essentials, in list form:

- Chip or point balance shown beside the table
- Hand sorting by suit and rank at the deal

- Round history with the final hands of each deal
- Rebuy and leave options at defined breaks
- Pure-sequence reminders before declaration

Getting to what you need

The settings worth knowing before a session are sound, notifications, and display preferences; all three sit together in the account menu.

The quick-start path

The installer is 26 MB for version 1.3.6. Post-install, the path is short: open, sign in, browse. No separate setup app, no account key import — the defaults carry you.

- Open the listing and use the DOWNLOAD control
- Set sound and notification preferences
- Confirm the install when Android prompts

A note on pace and spending

After a strong round and a weak one alike, the useful move is the same: check the history, confirm what happened, and decide whether the session continues on its original terms.

How the welcome bonus works

A ₹50 welcome bonus may be credited once an account meets the entry conditions. The promotion page lists those conditions together with eligible games and expiry details. Keep the distinction in mind — bonus balance and withdrawable balance are tracked separately, and the former does not convert automatically.

Requesting a withdrawal

You can request a withdrawal once your withdrawable balance reaches ₹100. The supported methods are UPI and Net Banking. Check the destination account details carefully — a payout sent to wrong details is a problem no one wants — and expect processing to depend on the chosen method and standard account checks.

Common questions

Yes, eligible first-time accounts can receive ₹50. The terms attached to the offer govern its use and validity, and they appear before any claim is confirmed. Until its conditions are met, the credit remains bonus balance.

Its focus is rummy tables with an open deck, a closed stack and a discard slot that updates after every move; everything else — menus, history, help — supports that without crowding the screen. First-time users should start from the rules screens.

Each format lists its stake range; within that, you decide. Costs are displayed before entry, and the balance updates after every settled round.

Yes — account details are reviewed as part of verification, particularly before withdrawals. Keeping the profile current makes those checks routine.

Withdrawals start at ₹100 and travel by UPI and Net Banking. Bonus-related requirements can hold part of the balance, and processing follows the selected route without fixed turnaround promises.
